

1.0

Jan 7, 2026

Soul Sucking

Lead care manager

Former employee

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

The team was cool, we trauma bonded I guess.

Cons

Everything. This place will bleed you dry. No growth opportunities. EXTREME micromanaging. Bad office politics. Bad benefits. Mid pay. Bad upper management. Bad PTO. Culture of threats and punishment, not celebration and reward. The punishment system is kind of like kindergarten, warnings, write ups, corrective actions.

When I was at this job I was stuck completing processes that don't actually help people long term, getting chewed out every step of the way, having to beg for time off after being completely burnt out by the company culture. You will be watched and monitored on when you come in, when you leave, when you take breaks, who you talk to, how long you talk to them for, who are you friends with.

When you're there, they are going to try to convince you that you are treated well and that all companies are like this. You are being GASLIT. If an employer has to tell you everyday that you are the problem, that you just need to be positive and grateful and complain less, then it should be a huge red flag. I know now that I was being gaslit because I left. No one stays for longer than a few years here. Most leave after just months. I left and will never ever ever look back, I'm so much happier.

Helpful

Share

6

2.0

Dec 19, 2025

Not paid enough

Lead case manager

Current employee

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

The coworkers make it worthwhile.

Cons

You feel micromanaged by leadership or management.

Helpful

Share

1

1.0

Nov 24, 2025

Management/Supervisors need replacement

Lead care manager

Current employee, less than 1 year

San Ramon, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

There are no Pros at Serene

Cons

Leadership does not model the values they promote. Favoritism influences senior roles and decisions. Site managers misuse staff for relaying disciplinary messages. Poor planning leads to last-minute meetings and canceled appointments.

Member care is claimed as a priority but not practiced. Unprofessional behavior from managers during calls. Supervisors misinterpret accountability as disrespect. HR provides inconsistent guidance and does not model professionalism.

Advice to Management

Hello everyone, I've taken time away to reflect on my experience at Serene, The values Serene promotes are not reflected in its leadership. Favoritism, unprofessional behavior, poor planning, and a lack of accountability have made it clear this environment won't change. To those who work with integrity every day—you deserve better.

Helpful

Share

2

1.0

Sep 12, 2025

Micromanaging condescending upper management

Lcm

Current employee, less than 1 year

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

You get to help the less fortunate and the mileage reimbursement

Cons

Micromanaging..they have cameras in the office and break room and upper management watches and tell site manager what's going on. You have 5 tasks all due at the same and have to documented, some health companies require double documentation. The micromanaging is overkill

Advice to Management

To become a lead but you get 10 tasks assigned at the same time and due all at the same time

Helpful

Share

3

1.0

Aug 12, 2025

Terrible. Stay away

Anonymous employee

Current employee, less than 1 year

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Mileage pay

That's all I can think about

Cons

Rules are always changing

Not a sustainable job

Burn out is real

Advice to Management

Stop micromanaging

Helpful

Share

5.0

Jun 7, 2025

Good - suggested

Accountant

Current employee, more than 1 year

Indore

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Good work environment and salary

Cons

Location is slightly far away

Helpful

Share

4.0

Apr 11, 2025

Rewarding Position

Lead care manager

Current employee, more than 1 year

Los Angeles, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Serving the underserved population has always been my passion and this role enables me to do so. The support I receive has allowed me to be successful.

Cons

It can be challenging to work with high needs individuals, but we find a way to make it work!

Show more

Helpful

Share

1.0

Feb 26, 2025

Avoid Job!

Behavioral coordinator

Former employee

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

No Pros given to the position. Seek elsewhere with actual career opportunities.

Cons

Extreme high turnover rate. Micromanaged but great team members. Low Pay. No growth opportunities. 1 Year to apply for 401k plan.

Show more

Helpful

Share

2

2.0

Feb 25, 2025

Not great at providing

Anonymous employee

Current employee

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

getting experience working with mental health clients

Cons

- opened a location and accepted clients without it being fully established. - company basically ignores simple requests for better quality of care - company's communication with staff is inconsistent

Show more

Helpful

Share

2

5.0

Feb 11, 2025

Good Work Enviroment

Lcm

Former employee, less than 1 year

San Ramon, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Members are pretty collaborative and ready to jump in to help.

Cons

None that I can think of 2.0

Feb 3, 2025

Underpaid and overworked

Lead case manager

Current employee, more than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Nice office but that's about it.

Cons

Constantly micromanaged and more responsibilities are given.

Show more

Helpful

Share

2

2.0

Dec 3, 2024

Not horrible, but a transitional job at best

Lead care manager

Current employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

-we get to help poor people in San Diego -we help them coordinate their appointments, get resources for food, clothes, discounted utilities and anything we can find basically -team of LCMs is nice, friendships are forged here -pay is around $25/hr, which is really not horrible -festive on the holidays

Cons

Look I gave this 2 stars out of generosity because I appreciate being employed and getting a paycheck but here is my honest truth -people do not like working at this company, there is an incredibly high turn over rate -yet we are constantly told to "stay positive" and "stop spreading negativity" like we are the problem -the micromanagement is out of control, employees feel belittled and not respected -management is obsessed with the politics of the office, making it honestly kind of a toxic environment -some supervisors are literal bullies, drunk on power, and management supports it -we are not trained properly -benefits are not great

Show more

Helpful

Share

3

1.0

Sep 27, 2024

DO NOT WORK HERE

Lead care manager

Former employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

The pay is decent and you have a supportive team but that's the only support you'll receive.

Cons

Their turnover rate and employee retention are very poor, which should've been the first red flag. Female Supervisor A.I. is nice and sweet at first then after the first month, she is extremely condescending and passive-aggressive, not supportive at all. They give you more and more work, last minute work to complete with extremely unreasonable due date or notice. The supervisor does not support you and denies you when you try to advocate for yourself. Was given a task at 2:30pm and expected to complete by 5pm. I was a new hire and could not believe this is how they treat new hires after 2 months. They are constantly conducting interviews and people are quitting left and right, myself included. I wish I had never been associated with this company to begin with and I admire the LCMs who still work there.

Show more

Helpful

Share

4

1.0

Jul 23, 2024

Terrible Management

Mental health therapist

Former employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Decent benefits, remote work and being of service to the clients.

Cons

You will be overworked and burned out. The workplace became unbearable when the director of mental health left. The current managers are passive aggressive and unprofessional. The main focus for the company is on making money and not on the client or employee wellbeing.

Show more

Helpful

Share

4

1.0

Jul 19, 2024

yikes

Care coordinator

Former employee

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

none,

nada.

zero.

sucks,

worst.

Cons

everything you can possibly imagine.

1.0

Jul 15, 2024

Toxic workplace environment

Lead care manager

Former employee, less than 1 year

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

None

None

None

None

None

Cons

Unprofessional management

Lots of favoritism

They allow anyone to be a manager and don't take accountability whatsoever

HR is a joke and the entire company needs to improve

The pay and benefits are not worth the heavy workload

I would not recommend this place to anyone who values their sanity and peace of

Advice to Management

Hire people who are equipped to be in a leadership role so you can build a solid foundation. There's a reason no one stays at this job longer than a year and people are continuously quitting m.

Helpful

Share

4

1.0

Jun 27, 2024

SAVE YOURSELF, DO NOT WORK HERE

Lead care manager

Current employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Do not work here. HR department is trash. You cannot complain here without being thrown out the door or abused. The whole management here is absolute garbage, this is not a company BUT A JOKE. PLEASE SAVE YOURSELF. I am only giving 1 star, but want to put 0 STARS.

Cons

Everything. Management. Managers/CEO do not care. HR department is full of favoritism, lack of leadership, ineffective management, toxic energy will leaving you feeling uncomfortable all the time. It's a toxic and hostile environment.

Various people have complained about the department and nothing changed. CEO nor management care about having a positive work environment. Very SAD. DO NOT WORK HERE.

Advice to Management

IMPROVE PLEASE. FIRE MANAGEMENT.

Helpful

Share

3

1.0

Jun 20, 2024

I feel compelled to be honest

Human resources

Current employee

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

The patients and members lives we get to change

Cons

High turnover in all departments, corrupt leadership, unprofessional friendships that allow harassment, bullying and retaliation to flourish like wildfire. If you have other opportunities; take them. This is the highest turnover rate I have experienced in 10+ years of work experience.

Helpful

Share

2

4.0

Jun 6, 2024

Good till you're licensed

Associate mental health therapist 2nd year

Current employee

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Lots of clinical hours and experience

Cons

Barely any training or advancement opportunities

Helpful

Share

3.0

Jun 4, 2024

Good for experience

Lead care manager

Former employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

The people you work with can become like a second family and are a big support. You get to help people and it is very rewarding when you make a difference in someone's life. It's a great position to get experience in the care management field and then explore other options.

Cons

The pay and benefits are some of the biggest downsides. Not to mention that upper management refuses to consider flexible work schedules or hybrid work for dedicated and "loyal " workers. Favoritism is also huge here and the main supervisor can often take things too personal. Upper management also loves to add things on to the job description all the time. They praise going "above and beyond" even if that is at the cost of your well-being.

1.0

Jan 10, 2024

Good stepping stone Healthcare representative

Former employee

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

- Get to test your skills with self managing

Cons

- No real training and pressure to opt in.

Helpful

Share

4

4.0

Jan 1, 2024

Nice work place Care coordinator

Current employee

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

High expectatives, totally doable, nice surroundings excellent team work

Cons

Not that good Pay, but worth it

Advice to Management

Frat office management, upper management do not think about their workers,Just money

Helpful

Share

4.0

Dec 9, 2023

Content to be Employed Lead care manager

Current employee, more than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

I have worked at a few places where the upper management never complemented on your work only pointed out what you were doing wrong . The management at Serene Health has always shown appreciation to the hard work the Lead Care Managers put in on a daily basis. The family oriented atmosphere is why I stay. I have been employed with this company for 2 1/2 years and have plans to stay awhile longer. I enjoy my co-workers and have made some true friendships. The managers care about what is going on with you personally and understands we have families too.

Cons

The insurance benefits could be better. Working 8:30 am to 5:00 pm gives little time to take care of personal issues.

Advice to Management

4-10 work days.

Helpful

Share

5.0

Dec 7, 2023

Let's talk about our SD site manager

Lcm

Current employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

I am thoroughly impressed by the exceptional environment and the quality of individuals at Serene. Our site manager in San Diego adeptly oversees a team of over 50 employees, demonstrating not only flawless management skills but also a genuine concern for the well-being of her team. Her dedication to the welfare of others is truly commendable, often going the extra mile not just for her staff but for their individual members as well. I must take a moment to commend our site manager; rarely have I encountered a superior who is so attentive and willing to work together to find solutions for any challenges faced. She embodies a blend of problem-solving abilities, compassion, and an innate drive for achieving goals, making her a natural and exemplary leader. The sense of familial belonging that Serene cultivates from day one is remarkable; the warmth extended to me upon joining was truly remarkable. It's disheartening to hear negative remarks about our site manager because, in my experience, I couldn't have wished for a better job. It's not just about the opportunity to enhance people's lives daily, but the genuine and unwavering support from our site manager that surpasses any expectations one could have.

Cons

I have no negative feedback

Helpful

Share

5.0

Dec 3, 2023

A splash of reality

Lead care manager

Current employee

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

I've been fortunate to work in various environments, yet none have compared to the positive atmosphere and exceptional leadership here. Despite the challenges we encounter, this workplace, under our manager's guidance, feels like a second family. Our manager, who genuinely values each team member, fosters a culture of recognition and support for our achievements. She openly acknowledges that perfection isn't the goal, but prioritizes our well-being above all else, a sentiment echoed in our daily meetings.

It's disheartening to read negative comments about our management, as I've experienced firsthand their kindness and human approach. Our manager's initiatives, from morning meetings to team events and birthday celebrations, reflect a commitment to creating an inclusive, respectful, and nurturing workplace. Their dedication to equality and a healthy environment is commendable, coupled with their wisdom, quick thinking, and personal support for both members and employees. Admittedly, this job isn't easy; it demands teamwork, resilience, and patience. However, the joy of helping others and the strength gained through overcoming challenges make it uniquely fulfilling. Those who solely seek a paycheck or lack the willingness to embrace challenges may struggle here, as this incredible team thrives on dedication and hard work.

Cons

There are no cons to be shared.

Advice to Management

Keep up the amazing work, I support the team and company you all have built here 🍷

1.0

Nov 25, 2023

People don't stay long

Lead care manager

Former employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

I learned about essential resources that help underserved populations. Mostly friendly coworkers who help you when you have questions. Potlucks once a month.

Cons

Cannot emphasize enough about the unprofessional management that does not support you. Unfair dress code that expects women to wear uncomfortable shoes and men get to wear "nice" tennis shoes. The manager of the site refers to the group as a "family". Constant badgering to participate in events/gifts that require employees to spend money with an already low wage. The manager pushes her faith during useless and long morning meetings. No option to work from home ever. Turnover rate is high. No room for growth. They have favorites. If you are on their bad side they are not afraid to show it.

Helpful

Share

5

5.0

Nov 9, 2023

Great

Lead care manager

Current employee, less than 1 year

Riverside, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Great people, great team, great energy

Cons

Working with mental health cans be a little overwhelming

Advice to Management

Work for home

Helpful

Share

4.0

Sep 26, 2023

Good company

Lead care manager

Current employee, more than 1 year

Sacramento, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Caring management, good work hours

Cons

I dont really have a con for the company

Advice to Management

Nothing really I like the company.

Helpful

Share

2.0

Aug 20, 2023

Management is pretty bad

Mental health provider

Former employee

Tinley Park, IL

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Pay isn't terrible. Direct supervisor was pretty good

Cons

horrible communication, terrible management, inconsistent expectations, also forced to work 6 days a week

Helpful

Share

1

2.0

May 20, 2023

Listen to the reviews

Lead care manager

Former employee, less than 1 year

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Coworkers were kind Helping the members

Cons

Bad benefits. Ridiculous if anything. Only 5 days of PTO for 1st year compared to other places you get at least 2 weeks of PTO right off the bat. Health insurance is expensive. They don't "micromanage" but that's a lie. There were red flags during the interview that I ignored and decided to give it a chance. Don't be like me.

Advice to Management

Honestly, for all the work the employees put in each day, the least you can do is provide BETTER benefits and BETTER pay.

2.0

Mar 13, 2023

Not worth deteriorating your mental health for management

Lead care manager

Former employee

Cerritos, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

friendships among coworkers; birthday PTO (because who wants to deal with this BS on their birthday)

Cons

Where do I even start? It's all about the money and reaching quotas with these people. All lead care managers I've worked with really care for their clients, but middle management especially at the Cerritos location, couldn't care less about these members. Management always seemed too busy or inconvenienced whenever we asked questions. Any concerns shared with our manager/supervisor were deemed as "complaints" and us giving "pushback". We were often gaslit and manipulated. All our personal achievements were used as success stories by middle management to make them look good. Training is a joke--training consists of sitting in webinars; you don't really learn anything useful. There are very few resources to provide to members in need. It's a requirement to meet members in person every so often (which was fine), but our office is primarily women (except for the supervisor), so the thought of commuting to meet a stranger in person, alone, with no real safety procedures and training set in stone was a major concern when it was first implemented and even is now. When most of us met some of these members and were faced with uncomfortable experiences and inappropriate behavior with a few bad seeds, these concerns were voiced to the manager, but we were gaslit and told "oh this doesn't happen often". Thanks for the support. I was told I'd be getting a raise during my first quarterly review. I never saw that come to fruition (been there a year or so). I received a smaller holiday bonus than those whose work quality was way below the standard. I worked hard in this company because I cared for my members, but my successes and achievements didn't amount to anything than to be used as success stories to make the boss man look good (but my documentation template, which I was praised for, was shared with everyone in the office because it was so great -- still no raise though). Turn over rate is ridiculous. They don't promote from within (at least not at Cerritos), they'd rather hire incapable outsiders for managerial roles rather than provide current employees with better opportunities.

Advice to Management

You need better training, better benefits for the BS you put your employees through, and Jesus. Seriously.

Helpful

Share

6

2.0

Oct 11, 2022

Not for the faint of heart

Anonymous employee

Current employee

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

I can't think of one

Cons

1 week vacation time per year The left hand doesn't know what the right is doing. No formal training

Advice to Management

Create an actual procedure and process for every department in the company. All upper management should be held by the same standards as lower and mid level employees

Helpful

Share

2

4.0

Jun 26, 2022

review

Lead care manager

Current employee

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Everyone says great things about the management

Cons

It seems like many people do not work here long term

Helpful

Share

3.0

May 23, 2022

Case management is not equal

Lead care-manager

Current employee, less than 1 year

San Diego, CA

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

Great coworkers and the work we do is priceless

Cons

No room for growth , bad benefits , bad pay .

Helpful

Share

1

1.0

Apr 13, 2022

Save yourself from total mental health deterioration

Anonymous employee

Former employee, less than 1 year

Recommend

CEO approval

Business outlook

Pros

I was able to leave.

Cons

WORST management. WORST people. Shady shady SHADY people and company. All of upper and senior management are scum of the earth people. Tried having employees take a workshop about the "art of lying to an insurance company". For a mental health company they do a FANTASTIC job at ruining their employee's. That's about the only thing they're good at. That and not paying people their bonuses. or their pay in general.